

Martin Luther King had a vision.

You have a story.

On Saturday, January 29, Dumbarton Playback Theatre will honor Dr. King's dream and your stories relating to King's life and work through an evening of improv storytelling.

DUMBARTON PLAYBACK THEATRE

Saturday, January 29, 2005 7:30 - 9 PM

Dumbarton United Methodist Church in Georgetown

Playback Theatre is a spontaneous performance. It is theatre created through a unique collaboration between performers and the audience. Someone from the audience is invited to tell a story or moment from their life, chooses actors to play the different roles, then watches as their story is immediately recreated.

The performance is FREE, although donations will be collected to support the Baltimore/Washington Conference (of the United Methodist Church) Mosaic Project.

[Dumbarton United Methodist Church is located in Georgetown at 3133 Dumbarton Ave., just east of Wisconsin Avenue between N & O Streets NW. Parking is available at Hyde Elementary School at 3219 O St. (west of Wisconsin Ave.)]

For more information about the performance, please call 202-333-7212 or 202-502-1388.
